Another Board Director Receives Honorary Doctorate

If you've ever met our Board Director, Elaine Griffin, you can attest that she really is one of a kind. With the energy of six people, she powers through her days as a highly successful Interior Designer, community volunteer and caregiver of her aging mother. Recently, Elaine was one of the keynote speakers and honorees at the 2019 graduation of the New York School of Interior Design where she received an honorary doctorate degree.

Local Retiree Documents His Travels on Canvas

Retired community leader, Dennie McCrary is sharing his travels and talents with HGI this season by allowing us to feature his art on our Jolley House gallery wall. McCrary paints his memories from his travels and is sharing them with us this summer. All are welcome to visit our Hospice House and enjoy his work.
