Hurricane Dorian Evacuation

We are thankful Hurricane Dorian passed us by with little effect on our beloved Golden Isles as other communities did not fare as well. With three hurricanes and one tropical storm hitting our coast in as many years, we are grateful for the reprieve. On Monday (9/2), in response to the mandatory order for evacuation, Hospice of the Golden Isles transferred our Hospice House patients to hospice facilities further inland...click here to read more

Another R.E. Thomas Memorial Benefit in the Books!

The Thomas Family proves their dedication to Hospice of the Golden Isles each year by honoring the memory of their beloved patriarch, Mr. R.E. Thomas. This year was no exception at the 14th annual memorial benefit.
