Godspeed, Karen!

Last Friday was the end of an epic chapter at Hospice of the Golden Isles. Our beloved CEO, Karen Miller finished her last day at HGI, got in her vehicle and drove off to join her husband in Roanoke, Virginia where they are embarking on an exciting new chapter for their family.

Although we will miss her calming presence and her seemingly endless hospice knowledge, we wish her all the best in her new adventures.

Thank you for 13 years!
We miss you already!

Original Artwork Donated for Hospice Chapel

Local artist and author, Randy Siegel donated three of his alluring original paintings to be hung in the HGI chapel. Randy, a native of Atlanta, is a resident of St. Simons Island and parishioner at Christ Church Frederica.

Randy's work has been featured in many solo and juried exhibitions in Asheville, NC. To learn more about his art and to see samples of his paintings and photography, visit Randy's website HERE.

of the Golden Isles.

On Memorial Day at HGI, our Hospice House Chaplain, retired Marine Gunnery sergeant, Fr. William Hesse, along with our Bereavement Coordinator, Whitney Bounds, and Healthcare Relations Team, Melisa Haddix and Michael Relyea, a veteran of the Air Force, organized a Memorial Day celebration at our Hospice House. Whitney Bounds read the poem "In Flanders Fields" by John McCrae and the Healthcare Relations team placed memorial wreaths by our American flag flying at half-staff above the veteran's memorial bricks.
