MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN SOMEONE'S LIFE!

Become a Hospice of the Golden Isles Volunteer!

There are many ways to give back to your Hometown Hospice and one way is to become a volunteer. From administrative help to sitting with patients - giving primary caregivers a much needed respite - you can truly make a difference.

HGI Volunteer Coordinator, Trish Burns says she's experienced the need for caregiver relief firsthand and this is "truly a blessing that these special volunteers provide."

A message from our Bereavement Coordinator, Whitney Bounds

The bereavement department is in need of funding for grief books for children, teens, and adults. The books provide education to our families and members of the community, as well as for grief support groups and specialty workshops, such as a widower's support group. The books help assist us in providing the best care to our families and patients, before and after death. They also allow us to provide resources to those families that cannot afford to buy the materials themselves.

Thank you!

Trish Burns, Volunteer Coordinator

Trish moved from the "big city" (Atlanta, not NYC! to St. Simons Island in 2017 to be closer to her parents who retired to Coastal Georgia and joined HGI as volunteer coordinator in early 2018. A Registered Respiratory Therapist with the American Association for Respiratory Care (AARC) since 1983 as well as a second career in Interior Design, Trish brings a broad skillset to the HGI team!

When she's not spreading sunshine at HGI, Trish loves spending time with her beloved Shih-tzu, Chewbacca and on Thursday evenings, she can be found on the patio of Sago at Sea Palms for "Women and Wine" happy hour - sipping wine and listening to music with her dad, surrounded by a circle of friends. A girl couldn't ask for much more than that!

Trish says she feels blessed to be with Hospice of the Golden Isles because hospice work "has called my name for many, many years." HGI is blessed to have Trish!
